WELCOME TO YOUR PERSONAL ASTROLOGICAL LIFE CALENDAR!

Congratulations on your choice! You have chosen to join a select group of people—those who use the rhythms of the stars to enhance their timing and gain greater happiness in life. Yes, it's true . . . Astrology will allow you to make the right choices in life and achieve complete contentment and all that you desire for you and your family.

Astrology will help you to reach the peak of your own potential, steering you in the right direction to attain better self-understanding, satisfaction and achievement of your personal goals. Join hundreds of others who have found what's missing in their life, summoned the courage to go out and meet people, or took that first step to becoming a millionaire. Now you are a part of that elite crowd. You've chosen to let Astrology help you turn your life into what you want it to be!

Astrology is an incredibly ancient art. Humanity has used the heavens as clock, calendar, and compass for tens of thousands of years. Almost every major civilization has used the insights of astrology. From ancient rulers in Mesopotamia, China, Egypt and India—to Shakespeare—to Diana, Princess of Wales—to today's world leaders, including some members of European royal families and Sheik Yamani (oil minister of Saudi Arabia), an understanding of the planets and the signs of the zodiac has led to a richer, more satisfying life.

Here at Astro Communications Services, we have distilled the complicated patterns of the cosmos into a totally personalized calendar—just for you. By using the information in your very own calendar, you can make wiser choices, understand yourself and your loved ones better, move beyond unconscious blockages and inhibitions, and live a better life.

How Can You Use Your Planetary Patterns To Improve Your Life?

In Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar, we have interpreted the planetary positions that seem incomprehensible to most people. Top astrologers have extracted those parts that you can most easily use which tell you how to improve your life on a daily basis.

One aspect of astrology examines the relationship between the location of planets in your birth chart to the location of the planets today. Your Life Calendar examines trends based on planetary interactions for you on a daily, monthly and annual basis. You will see that some fast moving planets have only a passing significance on your life, whilst others move more slowly and have a longer lasting impression. These Trends will show you in easy to understand terms how each applies to your relationships, your family, your money. You will see the most important planets—Sun, Mercury, Venus and Mars—appearing frequently and we explain in straight forward terms how you can apply this information in specific areas of your life.

Astrology is not clairvoyancy, but a reliable ancient system which shows you how to make the best choices in life and how you can find and achieve your highest potentials. This precise astrological reading will not give you predictions, rather it will give you additional information you can use to make better choices, just like the weatherman gives you information you use when you choose your activities for the day.

Looking at what happens day-to-day, your personal calendar reveals tens of thousands of possibilities and from these Your Life Calendar selects the most important and relevant suggestions for the best use of your day in the areas of Love and Relationships, Money and Career, Home and Family, and Children and Sex (if you have selected them).

In addition, you will see the astrological events that apply not just to you, but to everyone. Knowing this, you can plan better those activities that involve others and even start to understand why several people all have a bad day all at once!

Your Personal Day-by-Day, Month-by-Month Astrological Life Calendar will educate you and help you interpret for yourself what courses of action are the right ones for you to take to achieve what you want in life. As each day finishes you can make notes in the special diary section on what has happened that day. And each day you can assess for yourself how accurate your own unique reading was in relation to the choices you made that day.

There is no doubt that you will be able to increase your learning and self-understanding day-by-day, month-by-month, helping you set specific objectives and achieve those life goals that at one time seemed so unattainable.

Over time, when you look back through your diary, you will be able to see a pattern emerging of what choices you have been creating. As your self-understanding improves, you will see how different choices and decisions could have improved or altered the outcome.

When you see a particular descriptive paragraph in Your Life Calendar re-occurring, you can look back at the previous time it was present in your life and read your own record of that day's events. By using this information you will be able to determine the best times to plan certain activities in the future!

An Introduction To Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar

Let's look at your Life Calendar element-by-element, so you can take fullest advantage of the incredible tool you are holding in your hands. The more you understand how each area of the calendar brings you specific information, the faster you can use all of these pieces. As a maestro conducts a symphony, so you can conduct your life!!

A. Your Birth Chart

The basis for your astrological calendar is your unique birth chart. It is calculated based upon the date, place, and time (if you know it) of your birth. Your chart is a “map” of the sky at the moment of your birth and no one else can have that exact same chart as you unless they were born on the same date, in the same place, and at the same time as you were. That makes this chart truly unique for you and you alone. If you compare this chart with one for anyone else, even if they have the same birthday, you will find that your charts are different.

Your chart is the first component to be included with your calendar, at no extra charge, so that you can see the basis for the astrological interpretations provided by our experts. However, you do not need to understand your chart in order to make use of your calendar. We do the interpretation work and explanation for you!

B. Day-By-Day Pages

In this section you will find the pages of your calendar covering the whole month. Each day is divided into two sections comprising a top and bottom section. As you turn the pages you'll see alternate pages show three or four days to view making up the seven days of the week. A week will always start on a Sunday so there may be more or less days than an exact calendar month. “How To Read Your Calendar” is explained in detail in the next section headed “Your Calendar Pages And How To Use Them.”

C. Glossary for “Trends: Major Issues in Your Life” Explained

Next you will find a collection of paragraphs under the heading “Glossary for Trends: Major Issues in Your Life” that are relevant only to you. These are the enduring, long term issues that will come up in your life. One benefit of knowing these in advance is that you can choose to use these energies in a positive way as suggested in these paragraphs. Without this knowledge, you might use these energies (or trends) in a less productive or possibly negative way, all because you didn't know in advance.

Every month, on your calendar pages, the longer term trends for you during this month are presented in a simplified chart. On the calendar pages, you are given a descriptive title for each of the longer term energies in effect for that day. The complete explanations for these descriptive titles are included in the paragraphs in this section. These paragraphs are the key to fully understanding these energies.

The title for each paragraph in this section will appear in Your Astrological Life Calendar at some time between now and the end of the year. Only those paragraphs which apply to you will be included in this section, so keep this part of your calendar safe; you can't borrow these pages from a friend. The descriptive paragraphs for all of the calendar months you received are alphabetically listed at the end in their own section so you can find them.

You'll notice that each paragraph has a symbol next to it, either a ♥, a $ or a 🏠. These symbols tell you how this planetary configuration relates specifically to the three most important areas of your life. At the end of each paragraph, the planetary configuration is listed so that, if you like, you can become familiar with the astrological techniques used.

D. Glossary for “How to Express Yourself Better” Explained

Next you will find a collection of paragraphs under the heading “Glossary for How to Express Yourself Better.” Every month, on your calendar pages, you will see a set of four titles listed next to the symbols for Sun (☉), Mercury (☿), Venus (♀), and Mars (♂). Astrologically, these represent how best to express four major drives in your life.

The Sun (☉) tells you the best way for you to “shine,” where you can get recognition, what's most affirming to your self-esteem, and what people are likely to admire about you. Feeding your Sun feeds your personal vitality.

Mercury (☿) tells you the best way to communicate, what is likely to be on your mind, the thoughts you need to share with others, and what might help or hinder your objectivity.

Venus (♀) is the key to pleasure, both in the physical world and in love relationships. She represents our desire to enjoy, whether food, money, possessions, making love, creating beauty, or the gratifying company of other people.

Finally Mars (♂) represents your assertive side, where you need to be first, to be independent, to be active, to go your own way. Blocking your Mars can make you feel tired and frustrated. Feeding our Mars adds to your energy level.

You can see how understanding these basic needs and desires can help you to accomplish your goals and enjoy yourself in the process. To make it even easier, we have suggested the best ways to express these important parts of yourself in the areas of Love (♥), Money and Career ($), and Home and Family (🏠).

Once again, there are many, many possibilities and only the ones that are specifically important for you that day are listed. These paragraphs are the key to fully understanding these energies. The descriptive paragraphs for all of the calendar months you received are alphabetically listed at the end in their own section so you can easily find them.

Your Calendar Pages and How to Use Them

Before each section of the calendar is described, we want to point out something of utmost importance to you. You'll see that we have left room for diary notes on Your Life Calendar. You will get the most out of this tool if you write down what is going on in your life day by day. By jotting down something every day (or most days), you become more aware of the patterns in your life—and can take better advantage of your personal cycles.

How To Use Section 1: Trends: Major Issues in Your Life

The first section of Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar is called “Trends: Major Issues in Your Life.” These are based on the current positions of the planets in our solar system in comparison to the positions in your horoscope—calculated from the day, month, year, hour, and minute (plus place) where you were born! No one has the same horoscope as you unless that person was born the exact same minute in the exact same location on the Earth! Your horoscope is unique to you—just like your fingerprints!

Across the top of the Trends section is a listing for trends that are in focus for all of the days on that page of your calendar. Because this information is calculated for you uniquely, there may be one heading that lasts for the entire three or four days, or there may be several. If you see more than one title, separated by a semi-colon, then you have more than one trend happening at one time. We do not know until we calculate this information using your birth date, place and time and the date range of the calendar page how many trends apply uniquely to you on a given day.

You will notice that some of the Trends last for many days (even weeks or months) whilst others last for only short periods. You can tell when an existing trend stops because it is listed separately in a box with a line that extends to the date where the trend ends. You can tell when a new trend starts by looking for the beginning of new boxes and noting the day on which the box starts.

Example:

Each trend has a descriptive title. That is a succinct summary of what the trend represents—and our best advice on how to deal with it. (The trend, in our example, is titled: Power Within or Power Struggles.) A more complete explanation of each trend can be read in the glossary at the back of your calendar. All individual trends are listed in alphabetical order. The title for this section at the back of your calendar is called “Glossary for Trends: Major Issues in Your Life,” which was described earlier in the introduction. All of the trends that will appear in your calendar from your first month until the end of the calendar year are listed in this section.

Consider these trends as background for everything else in your life. They should overshadow the more temporary matters which are discussed in other sections. When there are different messages, give more weight to what is said in the trends section. It will be more significant.

How To Use Section 2: How to Express Yourself Better

The next section is called “How to Express Yourself Better.” This section follows the movement of four key planets, representing four important drives in your nature, through the parts of your chart that astrologers call “houses.” (We call the Sun a planet even though we know it is really a star—the only star in our solar system. It is just easier to speak of four planets than to speak of three planets plus a star.) The Sun represents your self-esteem and need to shine. Mercury represents your drive to think and to communicate (talk, write). Venus represents your desire for pleasure—both from money and possessions and from people and love. Mars represents your need to be active, independent and assertive.

The houses of a horoscope represent different people in your life and different interests. For example, the fourth house is a key to your parents, your own home and family and your need to nurture (pets, plants, etc.). The “How to Express Yourself Better” section provides short phrases or descriptive titles which tell you the best way to express yourself associated with each planet in the house it is currently occupying—in your personal horoscope. Note that the planets take from one to two months to move through each house, so you have some time to successfully express the desires involved.

Although only the descriptive titles appear on the actual calendar pages, a fuller interpretation is given in the glossary at the back of your calendar. All individual titles are again listed in alphabetical order for your easy reference. Each planet position that is relevant for you personally is in the section entitled “Glossary to How to Express Yourself Better.” As always, we suggest the best ways for you to use these cosmic patterns. So, for example, when the Sun goes through your first house (“Personal Potency” is the title), we suggest you get out there and shine!

Recognition and positive regard are easier to achieve. You have more charisma.

Because the titles change only when a planet moves into a new house, you can easily notice when changes occur. You don't have to read the house interpretations every day. You know what is a background need for you—for about one or two months—and the same title appearing each day just reminds you of your highest potentials for that month(s).

How To Use Section 3: Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope

The next section is your Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope. This is the most personal and most quickly changing portion of Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar. For each day of the week, you will get messages in several different life areas. Everyone will get messages applying to the following areas of your life: Love and Relationships; Career and Money; Home and Family. In addition, for those of you who wish to receive them, messages are also available for the areas of your life regarding Children and Sex. (You can ask for these when you re-order.)

Each daily message actually requires a great deal of work! It is combining information from 10 planets in any of 12 houses in any of 12 signs, making connections with each other in any of 9 different ways. We carefully combine all that data and summarize the most important messages for you. This daily message gives you a feeling for the best activities you can engage in—and a warning when certain pitfalls may be lurking. As throughout Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar, we'll help you to see what the best ways are to “go with the flow” in your life on a day-by-day basis!

You may find that some of these messages repeat over the months. This means that similar astrological configurations are present which give you the opportunity to use and re-use the information you have gained using your personal calendar, and especially the daily diary notes. If you write down your experience of the day, each and every day, then when the paragraph repeats, you already know something about how you have worked with this kind of planetary energy before and you can use that to your advantage.

For example, if your Detailed Daily Interpretation of Your Horoscope recommends detachment in terms of Love Relationships, you may find that focusing on your own hobbies keeps you from arguing with a spouse.

How To Use Section 4: Life Lessons

You will notice that occasionally your week includes a “Life Lesson.” This occurs on an irregular basis. When certain cosmic patterns occur, they indicate that you are about to be tested in regard to a certain issue. It might be that the test is whether you can assert yourself, defend your own rights, stand firm for what you deserve. Or, perhaps a celestial test will examine whether you are able to let other people take care of you or insist on being rabidly independent about everything. The “Life Lesson” information will tell you what examination the universe is sending your way—and then you'll know whether you get a “pass” grade or make it to the very top of the class!

How To Use Section 5: Moon (☾) and Mercury (☿) Section

The black bars in the Moon and Mercury section refer to two phenomena: one called “Moon Void of Course” and the other called “Mercury Retrograde.” This section and the Astro Weather section that follows provide general background material which apply to everyone—not just you! These are the only parts of your calendar which are not written for you alone. The information given in this section can be used by you, but also by other people around you. In each case, along with the technical information which is provided, we give you a few words (or sentences) which suggest the best way to take advantage of this celestial pattern. This information will appear at the bottom of the Astro-Weather section for your convenience.

The Moon Void-of-Course black bars could last for a few minutes of one day to more than one day. If the Moon is Void of Course, there is a corresponding paragraph in Astro Weather which describes how to best approach that time of the day.

The Mercury Retrograde period usually lasts 20-25 days, and is indicated by a black bar across the days involved. These periods are excellent for review, research and repairs and times when people need to be more cautious with machinery. Double check the fine print with anything you buy or sign, and confirm appointments and directions carefully (as miscommunication can occur more easily). “Take Care with Communications” appears in the box to remind you.

The Moon and Mercury phenomenon are shown in your calendar as black bars which are placed on the portions of the day or days for which the phenomenon apply. So you know exactly what part of the day or days has that particular planetary configuration and you can use this vital information yourself or you can share it with others to your advantage.

How To Use Section 6: Astro-Weather—Current Issues for Everyone

The section called “Astro Weather” is also general background material which applies to everyone. Several bits of data apply to the Moon. You will learn which phase the Moon is in. For example, the New Moon phase is an excellent time to initiate, to begin projects of any sort. When planning publicity releases, openings and other such new beginnings, a New Moon is an excellent period to choose. By keeping your own diary, you will notice any patterns in your life which connect to the phase the Moon is in. (For example, one person might notice that a particular relative always calls within a day or so of the Full Moon.)

Your Life Calendar also tells you what Sign of the Zodiac the Moon is in. Each sign has its own particular significance—and that meaning is printed out for you when the Moon changes signs. However, by keeping track of your daily experience which you should record in Section 7 (the Daily Diary Notes section), you will notice your own unique patterns as well. Perhaps you get more phone calls when the Moon is in Gemini or you almost always go shopping when the Moon is in Leo.

Finally if there is a black bar in the Moon section, it will be explained here. The Moon Void-of-Course black bars indicate times when matters may not go as one expects, when a little extra thinking and planning is probably a good idea. As with each bit of “Astro Weather,” a few words or key phrases are provided to suggest the best course of action for you to take.

Remember, all the Astro Weather information can be used by other people! It is not just for you, so be willing to share with the ones you love!

How To Use Section 7: Daily Diary Notes

The Daily Diary Notes section is vital! As we mentioned earlier, Your Personal Astrological Life Calendar will be most valuable if you jot down what is going on in your life daily! You’ll be amazed at the sort of patterns and cosmic connections which emerge when you jot down a few notes! If you complete your Daily Diary Notes, you will benefit enormously in your daily life. In fact, we guarantee it!!

How To Use Section 8: Appointments

The Appointments section allows you to remember important dates (birthdays, etc.) and appointments which you need to keep.

How To Use Section 9: Relevance Rating

We want you to objectively evaluate the information we’ve provided on each day to determine for yourself how relevant it is to your life experience. This check box enables you to quickly note exactly how helpful this calendar is in your life. | Section 3 | ♥ Love | The issue today is being realistic without too much criticism 050of your self or others (be between being loved for who you are people). Don't push yourself or others too hard. Take any sensible step to enhance things. | Today you are facing the seesaw versus being loved for what you do. Some of both are present in most relationships. Allow a mixture. | You or a partner might feel torn between equality and control; a career and a partnership. Others could bounce from treating you as an equal to trying to dominate. Seek balance. | You may notice the restrictions in a relationship, or feel your partner is dominating and controlling. Exercise the power you have to increase your security and spirit. |
| | $ Money Career | Joint financial action is suggested today. Decisions may be shared, or you may simply wish to spend money on a partner or for a mutually pleasurable experience. | Do something financially which will please both you and a partner in your life. Compromise is called for, to satisfy personal as well as shared goals. | Ambitions for a career versus goals for a partnership may create conflicting financial needs. | | 🏠 Home Family | Love and work can be combined well today. Household chores run relatively smoothly. A spirit of cooperation prevails. Each person is willing to help out. | Reality reigns supreme. You have a good balance between social requirements and physical demands within the nest. | You could swing between ease and effort today--working very hard on the home and then kicking back, ready to totally relax. Perhaps a middle ground would feel easier? |

Luck is partly a matter of a positive attitude. | Your mind will probably be racing all day, with myriad ideas and concepts. Perhaps you can brighten up the place with a little redecorating, a plant, a picture, etc. |

- 2. How To Express Yourself Better

1. Glossary for "Trends: Major Issues in Your Life" for John Luckee

Change Outmoded Structures

- ♥ Take a hard look at yourself for any habits or patterns of thinking that get in your way where love is concerned. This is a period of slow, transformative change. Let go of old fears, break bad habits and change what you must. Take love seriously. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)
- § Things just can't be the way they were any more. You may be redefining your goals or priorities. A sense of loss of control may mean stress, but your best strategy is to accept that old ways must change, and work hard to make that happen positively. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)
- ♠ Things or people may be changing at home, and the atmosphere is serious. It will do you little good to resist, for change is inevitable. Take a good look at what may need to be reprioritized. Get organized. Get rid of what's outmoded. Build anew. (Pluto (♇) square Saturn (♄).)

Confusion, Caring, Concealing or Clairvoyance

- ♥ Your capacity for compassion is heightened, but emotions can be confused, making you vulnerable to unbalanced savior/victim relationships. Trust intuitive hunches to slow down. Take time to clarify what may be otherwise concealed. Maintain ideals. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)
- § A challenge of this transit can be emotional misunderstandings. Take extra effort to present yourself very clearly, and listen very carefully when others speak. If you're not sure what was said, repeat it back. Increased empathy can help you sell your idea. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)
- ♠ You could be experiencing some confusion about your life during this transit. Energy may be low. Best if you avoid any use of alcohol or drugs, for you are more susceptible to their effects. Follow good health habits and be good to yourself. (Neptune (♆) tri-octile Moon (♁).)

Crafty Thinking--Clever or Corrupt

- ♥ Clever you, communicating craftily as you wield Cupid's arrow. Or are you clamming up with uncertainty? Or competing for control? Mental stress means change is needed. Figure it out. Really listening to your lover may teach you some important things you need to learn about you. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (♃).)
- § Clever you, as you communicate craftily, seeking to make your point. Or are you silently critical, to your later regret? Whatever you need to learn in terms of effective communication will surface, demanding attention. Listen! Be open, direct, curious, honest and learn all you can. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (♃).)
- ♠ Clever you, craftily thinking up a stimulating family project. Or are you corrupting the atmosphere with tension, irritability and attempts at over-control? If so, lighten up, listen, and turn your curious mind inward to probe for ways you might improve your communication skills. (Pluto (♇) octile Mercury (♃).)

Enthusiastic Energy

- ♥ With extra enthusiasm and energy, your confidence soars and attracts. You seek excitement. Sexual energy is likely charged up, but be aware that you have a tendency to act too hastily now. Look past the moment for possible consequences. (Jupiter (♃) square Mars (♂).)
- § Enthusiasm exudes confidence. Take advantage of high energy now, but be aware you might also be inclined to overdo, exaggerate, or do things in such a rush that mistakes are made. Conflicts with authorities are possible. Assert yourself, but be fair. (Jupiter (♃) square Mars (♂).)
- ♠ Sometimes this transit will coincide with the happy event of a new baby in the family. If not that, it could be a time when you birth a new and productive home project. Extra energy could also be applied to that workout program you've been meaning to start. (Jupiter (♃) square Mars (♂).)

Expanded Accomplishments

- ♥ Taking on more than you can handle is a downside of this transit. If you're a "swinging single" heeding this caution signal might be a good idea. For established relationships, share your plans and goals and consider whether they serve both of you. (Jupiter (♃) quincunx Jupiter (♃).)
- § Expansive activities begun a few years ago may now require adjustment. You may wish to expand more, but are already overextended. Perhaps you can handle it all, but if you're feeling tense, it's a sign you need to reassess priorities and let something go. (Jupiter (♃) quincunx Jupiter (♃).)
- ♠ You may be taking courses to expand your opportunities, or volunteering for idealistic causes you support. Family needs you, too. Undue stress means you've taken on too much, and may need to readjust. A positive attitude assists whatever you're doing. (Jupiter (♃) quincunx Jupiter (♃).)

Opportunity Plus

- ♥ You're likely to be feeling optimistic and expansive, with an eye toward that which helps you get ahead in the world or enhances your reputation. Unless other transits show a focus on love, this one alone may mean that if your love interest is not assisting in your worldly goals, your attention is elsewhere. (Jupiter (♃) conjunct Midheaven.)
- § This could be a high point in your career life. Opportunity is at hand. It's a good time to look for a job or promotion. If you've been doing well, and have earned rewards, honors may come. Take advantage of the positive flow. Be alert for chances to put yourself forward. This is a time of growth and success. (Jupiter (♃) conjunct Midheaven.)
- ♠ Your attention is more focused on your work in the world than it is on your home life during this transit, and that is as it should be. Still, you need a secure and happy home in order to do your best, so some balance may be required. Thoughtful little things go a long way to let family know you care. (Jupiter (♃) conjunct Midheaven.)

Optimistic Faith
